EXECUTIVE SEARCH FOR VICE-PRESIDENT OF PROJECTS

Partnerships BC announced today that an executive search for a Vice President (VP) of Projects is now underway. The executive search firm of Pinton Forrest & Madden has been engaged to assist with the selection of a new VP.

The VP, Projects will support the high quality delivery of planning, procurement, and contract management advice and support to clients in the development of major public infrastructure projects. It is expected that the new VP will pursue improvements in customer service and business development. The incumbent will effectively manage relationships with service providers, current and future customers to maintain a sustainable public private partnership (PPP) market in British Columbia (B.C.). In addition, the new VP will support and maintain the continued development and sustainability of a centre of excellence for PPPs in B.C.

“The ideal candidate will be a proven project manager who has successfully and directly overseen large, complex capital projects,” said Sarah Clark, President and CEO. “We are looking for an individual who has demonstrated an outstanding ability to work with multi-disciplinary teams and experience dealing with a wide range of senior decision-makers.”

The call for qualified candidates is open until Friday, November 5, 2010. Interested candidates can learn more about this opportunity by visiting Partnerships BC’s website at www.partnershipsbc.ca
