We are currently seeking a Director of Corporate Relations to support Partnerships BC's mandate through development of effective partnerships, and by creating and delivering policy, communications and strategic initiatives.

Reporting to the President and CEO, and working closely with the executive team, the successful applicant will have 5 to 7 years' demonstrated experience in strategic communications, stakeholder relations, and working in a multi-faceted public affairs environment. Qualified candidates will possess a Masters Degree in Public or Business Administration, or equivalent combination of knowledge, work experience and education.

Required skills, knowledge and abilities for this role are:

- Demonstrated experience with strategic communications, stakeholder relations, media relations and issues management practices within a provincial Crown corporation or equivalent.
- First-hand knowledge of government legislation, policies, practices and corporate governance management.
- Experience in planning, prioritizing and managing both corporate and project communication plans and strategies in a business environment.
- Ability to direct and implement the development of written, oral and online communications to meet business objectives and stakeholder requests.
- Possess a flexible, positive and proactive approach to problem-solving and conflict resolution.
- Strong research and analytical skills.
- Ability to plan, prioritize and manage multiple, complex projects.
- Exceptional communication skills, both written and oral.
- Ability to work in a team environment and assess priorities within a fast-paced work setting.
- Strong computer skills in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and online platforms.

This position can be based either in Vancouver or Victoria.
